Healthcare M&A: State of Play

Strategic buyers are setting the pace in 2026 while private equity completes fewer healthcare services transactions.

M&A market dynamics

- Private equity completed an estimated 337 healthcare services transactions in the first half, a pace of 674 for the year and the lowest annual count since 2017 (PitchBook via Fierce Healthcare).
- Strategic buyers carried more of the activity: medtech deal value reached $36.5 billion in the first half (PwC via MedTech Dive), and hospitals and health systems announced 56 transactions through September, 16 of them in the third quarter (Kaufman Hall).
- Biopharma deal value reached $130 billion in six months, almost matching the total for all of 2025 (IQVIA).

Reimbursement and policy

- Medicare has proposed 2027 physician conversion factors of $33.17 and $32.84, reductions of 1.19% and 1.68%, with the final rule pending (CMS).
- Hospital outpatient, surgery center, and home health rates are proposed to rise 2.4% (CMS outpatient rule; CMS home health), and Medicare Advantage rates rise 2.48% (CMS rate notice).
- Medicaid work requirements and six-month eligibility reviews for expansion adults begin in January 2027 (CMS).

Financing and macro backdrop

- The Federal Reserve raised its target range to 3.75% to 4.00% on September 16 (Federal Reserve), and the 10-year Treasury yielded 5.09% on October 16 (US Treasury).
- In a small sample of recent buyout loans, PitchBook found direct-lender spreads averaging 509 basis points in the second quarter against 474 in the first (PitchBook).
- Completed middle-market transactions across industries averaged 7.0x EBITDA, with senior debt priced at 7.8% (GF Data via ACG).

Demand fundamentals

- National health spending grew 6.8% in the year to July 2026 and represented 18.4% of GDP (Altarum).
- CMS projects nearly $9.0 trillion of spending in 2034, or 20.6% of GDP, on average annual growth of 5.4% (CMS).
- Healthcare employers added 17,000 jobs in September against a twelve-month average of 33,000 (Bureau of Labor Statistics).

Trade and deal regulation

- A 100% default tariff applies to covered patented pharmaceuticals, with country and company exceptions and generics excluded (White House proclamation). The medical device investigation remained open in September with no tariff imposed (iData Research).
- California now requires transaction notices from private equity groups and management services organizations (Nixon Peabody), and Maine's 180-day notice and approval regime begins January 1, 2027 (Foley & Lardner).

FOR OWNERS

Medicaid redeterminations begin in January, so a Medicaid-weighted provider should expect diligence on enrollment attrition. Negotiated Medicare drug prices cut Guardian Pharmacy's growth to 2% in one quarter. Operating companies are winning auctions against sponsors because senior debt prices at 7.8%.

Private equity paid a median 13.6x EBITDA for healthcare services companies in 2025, on targets with median revenue of $162.5 million (PitchBook via Becker's ASC Review), and 87% of sales above $5 million across industries drew three or more offers (IBBA and M&A Source).

Figures are as of October 16, 2026, and deal counts and values are as reported by the named publisher and are revised as transactions are confirmed.

Our View

Strategic buyers hold the advantage into 2027, and the owners who do best will have answered the policy questions before a buyer asks them.

THE HOUSE VIEW

Operating companies and the largest platforms are buying through 7.8% senior debt and 500-basis-point spreads because they pay from cash flow, and hospital transactions are tracking to their most active year since 2020 while private equity's healthcare services count is at a 2017 pace.

We expect that division to hold through the first half of 2027. Sponsor volume returns once the September rate increase is absorbed and the 2027 Medicare and Medicaid rules are final, and the 2021 vintage of platforms still waiting for an exit will bring supply to market before then.

For an owner, the next twelve months favor a process built around strategic buyers, launched with the payer-mix and enrollment analysis already done and timed ahead of the sponsor exits that will crowd the second half of 2027.

01 Strategic Buyers

Operating companies bought seven of the nine named sellers in Benchmark's last 24 months of healthcare closings, HCA has added about 70 urgent care centers this year, and Danaher, Merck KGaA, and Labcorp are paying for consumables and testing volume. A buyer list that leads with strategics and brings in sponsors for competitive tension suits a 2027 process.

02 Reimbursement Dates

The 2027 physician fee schedule proposes conversion factor cuts of 1.2% to 1.7%, Medicaid work requirements, and six-month redeterminations start in January, and laboratory fee cuts of up to 15% a year resume unless the RESULTS Act passes. Buyers will model these items line by line, so an owner who brings that analysis to the first meeting stays in control of the valuation conversation.

03 Adjusted Multiples

On company-reported adjusted EBITDA the listed reference set trades at 14.3x, with provider services at 14.2x, medical products at 10.7x and pharmacy services at 15.0x, all within about a turn of a year ago, while life sciences and diagnostics re-rated to 18.7x. Private healthcare services deals cleared a 13.6x median in 2025 on targets with $162.5 million of revenue, against 5.8x for $5 million to $50 million businesses across industries. Scale, contracted revenue, and payer mix account for the gap between those two numbers.

04 Supply

PitchBook's healthcare analyst expects mean reversion from the 2026 low, and AMN and Thermo Fisher both described fuller pipelines on their second-quarter calls. Sponsor exits are running 26% below last year's pace, which builds a backlog of platforms waiting to sell. Owners who launch in the first half of 2027 meet buyers before that backlog clears.

WHAT WE ARE WATCHING

OCTOBER 21 AND 28

Integer shareholders vote on the KKR offer; the FOMC meets a second time after the September increase.

LATE OCTOBER TO NOVEMBER

Final CY2027 physician fee schedule, outpatient, and home health rules; Q3 earnings for the reference set.

JANUARY 1, 2027

Medicaid work requirements and six-month redeterminations begin; Maine's 180-day notice regime starts; PAMA lab cuts resume absent legislation.

MID-JANUARY 2027

Kaufman Hall's full-year hospital count and PitchBook's Q4 healthcare services report set the 2026 baseline.

Historical Market Context

Health spending has grown steadily since 2016, and hospital transaction counts have recovered from the 2025 low.

Spending on care has grown annually for a decade, and transaction counts have moved with financing costs and policy.

$5.3T

National health expenditures reached $5.3 trillion in 2024, or 18.0% of GDP, against $3.3 trillion in 2016 (CMS).

5.4%

CMS projects average annual spending growth of 5.4% from 2025 to 2034, against 4.1% for the economy, which would take spending to $9.0 trillion (Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget).

46

Hospitals and health systems announced 46 transactions in 2025, the fewest in the series, against 117 in 2017 (Kaufman Hall).

56

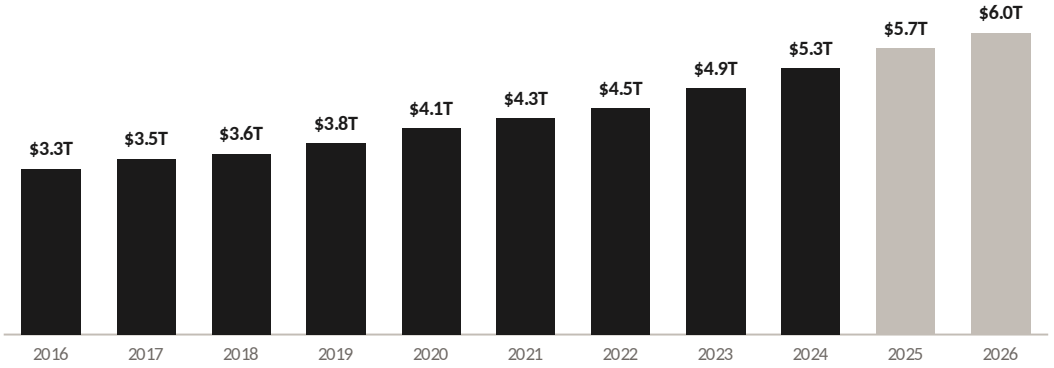

The first three quarters of 2026 produced 56 announced hospital transactions: 22 in the first quarter, 18 in the second, and 16 in the third (Kaufman Hall).

1,217

Private equity completed 1,217 healthcare services transactions in 2021 and an estimated 747 in 2025 (PitchBook).

BENCHMARK® INTERNATIONAL

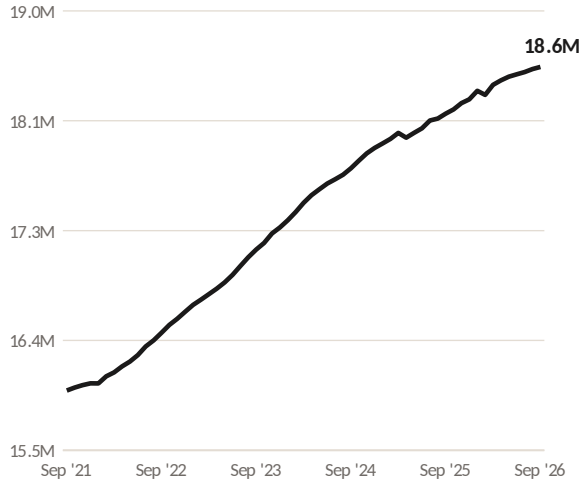

National health expenditures are from the CMS historical tables; 2025 and 2026 are CMS projections. Transaction counts are announced transactions as tallied by Kaufman Hall.

Market Fundamentals

Employment, capital investment, and drug approvals have grown since 2021, which supports demand across the four sectors.

HEALTHCARE EMPLOYMENT

All employees, healthcare, millions, monthly, seasonally adjusted. Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics via FRED

- Healthcare employed 18.55 million people in September 2026, 16.1% more than in September 2021 and 2.0% more than a year earlier.
- Health care and social assistance had 1,359,000 open positions in August (Bureau of Labor Statistics JOLTS). Buyers test clinician turnover as closely as payer mix.

FACILITY CONSTRUCTION

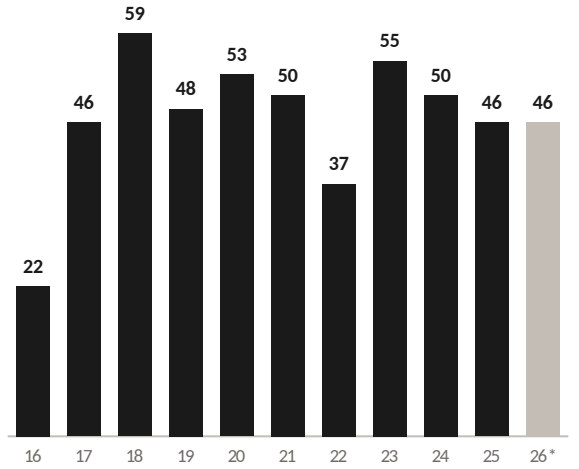

Total construction spending on healthcare, $ billions at an annual rate, monthly. Source: US Census Bureau via FRED

- Healthcare construction ran at an annual rate of $75.8 billion in August 2026, 49% above September 2021 in nominal dollars.
- Among hospital and health system executives surveyed, 41% plan to cut capital spending in 2026 (Sage Growth Partners via HFMA), which shifts spending from new construction toward acquisition.

FDA DRUG APPROVALS

Novel drugs approved by the FDA Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, by year. Source: FDA; RAPS

- The FDA approved 46 novel drugs in 2025 and 46 in 2026 through October 9, after a low of 37 in 2022.
- Outsourced research has recovered alongside approvals, with IQVIA booking $1.22 of new work for each dollar of revenue in the second quarter (IQVIA).

* 2026 covers approvals through October 9. Employment and construction series run from September 2021 to the latest month published as of October 16, 2026. Approval counts for 2016 to 2021 and 2024 are as reported by RAPS and US Pharmacist from FDA data.

Urgent care, Optometry & eye care, Pediatric & physical therapy, Multi-specialty medical groups, Emergency medical services, Renal care

KEY TRENDS

- The 100 largest urgent care operators hold 6,056 of the country's 14,655 centers, and 55.9% of those Top 100 locations are affiliated with a hospital (Journal of Urgent Care Medicine).
- HCA Healthcare acquired about 70 urgent care centers in three 2026 transactions: CommunityMed, Urgent Care Group, and Texas MedClinic (Becker's ASC Review; Healthcare Dive).
- Care in the home drew some of the largest sponsor-led provider transactions of the year, including General Atlantic's purchase of TEAM Services Group at about $3 billion (LevinPro) and Kinderhook's agreement to take Enhabit private at about $1.1 billion (Enhabit).
- Independent practice continues to shrink, and 42.2% of physicians work in physician-owned practices against 60.1% in 2012 (AMA 2024 Benchmark Survey via Medical Economics).

LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

Research spending has turned up and laboratories are selling to the national networks.

SUBSECTORS WE COVER

Clinical & pathology labs, Biologics & reagents, Clinical research sites, Human-factors & device design

KEY TRENDS

- Quest grew revenue 10.2% in the second quarter on 13.1% more requisitions (Quest Diagnostics), and Labcorp agreed acquisitions with total consideration of $528.6 million in the first half (Labcorp Form 10-Q).
- Medicare laboratory fee cuts of up to 15% a year could resume in 2027 unless Congress passes the RESULTS Act (Association for Diagnostics & Laboratory Medicine).
- Outsourced research has recovered, with IQVIA's net bookings up 19% (IQVIA) and Medpace growing revenue 17.2% (Medpace).
- Sponsor-backed networks continue to buy clinical research sites, including Headlands Research in California and Summit Clinical Research in Dallas (Headlands Research; Summit Clinical Research).

MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

Procedure demand is firm and consumables are outgrowing capital equipment.

SUBSECTORS WE COVER

Surgical instrument reprocessing, Emergency medical supplies, Respiratory & anesthesia products, Dental devices, Orthopedic products

KEY TRENDS

- Stryker grew 9.0% organically in the second quarter (Stryker), and Steris grew healthcare-segment consumables 9% and capital equipment 1% (Steris).
- Among hospital and health system executives surveyed, 41% plan to cut capital spending in 2026 (Sage Growth Partners via HFMA). Recurring supplies hold up better than capital equipment in that budget.
- Distribution assets changed hands: Platinum Equity agreed in October 2025 to buy Owens & Minor's products segment (Owens & Minor), and Apollo bought a 13% interest in McKesson's medical-surgical unit for $1.25 billion ahead of its planned separation (McKesson).
- Tariffs have moved earnings in both directions since the Supreme Court struck down the emergency-powers tariffs on February 20 (Learning Resources v. Trump).

PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES

Drug pricing reform is reshaping pharmacy while staffing returns to growth.

SUBSECTORS WE COVER

Specialty & mail-order pharmacy, Home infusion, Pharmaceutical delivery, Clinical staffing

KEY TRENDS

- US net medicine spending reached $606 billion in 2025, up 10.6% (IQVIA Institute), while independent pharmacies reported their lowest gross profit in ten years in 2024 (NCPA 2025 Digest).
- Negotiated Medicare prices have cut deepest in long-term care pharmacy, where Guardian grew revenue 2% while serving 8% more residents (Guardian Pharmacy Services).
- Specialty and infusion are growing fastest, and BrightSpring's pharmacy solutions segment grew revenue 22% to $3.4 billion in the second quarter (BrightSpring).
- Healthcare staffing is forecast to grow 1% to $39.0 billion in 2026 after three years of contraction (Staffing Industry Analysts).

Select Recent Healthcare M&A Transactions

Six transactions announced or completed between June and September 2026, with at least one from each sector.

SEPTEMBER 2026 — PROVIDER SERVICES

EYECARE PARTNERS ACQUIRED BY myeyedr.

MyEyeDr. agrees to buy the optometry business of EyeCare Partners

The business has more than 300 offices (Eyewire News), and EyeCare Partners will apply the proceeds to debt reduction. Closing is expected in the fourth quarter (EyeCare Partners).

TAKEAWAY A sponsor-backed platform sold a division to a competitor to repair its balance sheet; the consolidator with capacity set the terms.

SEPTEMBER 2026 — PROVIDER SERVICES

accentCare. ACQUIRED BY ADDUS HOMECARE

Addus HomeCare agrees to buy AccentCare's personal care division

Addus will pay about $275 million for AccentCare's personal care operations outside New York, with about $280 million of annual revenue in ten states (Addus HomeCare).

TAKEAWAY About one times revenue, paid in cash by a listed operator, is the current reference for personal care scale.

JUNE 2026 — LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

bio-techne ACQUIRED BY MERCK

Merck KGaA agrees to acquire Bio-Techne

The agreement values the reagent and instrument maker at an enterprise value of $11.3 billion, with closing expected by early 2027 (Bio-Techne).

TAKEAWAY A strategic paid a 36% premium for reagents and instruments with recurring consumable demand.

JULY 2026 — LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

StatLab ACQUIRED BY Leica BIOSYSTEMS

Leica Biosystems agrees to buy StatLab from Audax and Linden

StatLab makes anatomic pathology consumables and had about $250 million of 2025 revenue (Danaher). Its sponsors built it through nine add-on acquisitions in five years (PE Professional), and the purchase closed on September 28.

TAKEAWAY Nine founder-owned businesses assembled over five years became one strategic sale, a path open to other pathology suppliers.

AUGUST 2026 — MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

Integer® ACQUIRED BY KKR

KKR agrees to take Integer Holdings private

The offer of $127 a share values the contract manufacturer at an enterprise value of $5.7 billion, a 51.8% premium to the undisturbed price (Integer; Medical Design & Outsourcing). Shareholders vote on October 21 and closing is expected by year end.

TAKEAWAY A 52% premium for contract device manufacturing supports demand for smaller manufacturers as add-ons.

JULY 2026 — PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES

CROSS COUNTRY ACQUIRED BY KNOX LANE

Knox Lane completes its purchase of Cross Country Healthcare

Knox Lane paid $437 million, or $13.25 a share, after Aya Healthcare ended an agreement at $18.61 following an extended FTC review (Fierce Healthcare). The purchase closed on July 21 (Staffing Industry Analysts).

TAKEAWAY An extended FTC review cost the seller $5.36 a share; antitrust timing belongs in process design for mergers of scale.

Earnings and Commentary

Skilled nursing and research services grew fastest in the latest quarter, laboratories and device makers grew 6% to 10%, and pharmacy and staffing grew about 2%.

Revenue growth, latest reported quarter

Year over year, as stated in each earnings release; quarters ended June 2026

PROVIDER SERVICES

"We continue to see opportunities that include everything from larger portfolios, landlords looking to replace current tenants, non-profits looking to divest of their post-acute assets and a steady flow of traditional onesie-twosies."

Chad Keetch, Chief Investment Officer, The Ensign Group

PROVIDER SERVICES

"Recently, we have begun to see an increasing number of personal care opportunities, which we will be actively pursuing. Since the announcement of the 2027 proposed home health rule rate, there is more optimism around potential deals in skilled home health care."

Dirk Allison, Chairman and CEO, Addus HomeCare

LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

"Hospitals continue to contend with workforce, financial and other pressures. As a preferred strategic partner, we empower hospitals to improve quality, expand access to new test innovations, and maximize cost efficiencies and capital allocation."

Jim Davis, Chairman, CEO, and President, Quest Diagnostics

LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

"As you know, our capital deployment strategy continues to prioritize strategic M&A, complemented by a return of capital to our shareholders. We continue to have an active pipeline of M&A opportunities in our highly fragmented industry."

Marc Casper, Chairman and CEO, Thermo Fisher Scientific

MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

"When you think about onshoring, it's not just a move to the U.S. There's localization going on globally as tariffs become more of a play in Europe and in the U.S. You'll see some duplication of manufacturing sites, whereas maybe in the past you might have one site globally that is focusing on one pharmaceutical product."

Dan Carestio, President and CEO, STERIS

MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

"We also have a leading position in the fast-growing DSO segment of the market, which is driven especially by the middle market segment. As these DSOs continue to consolidate the dental market, this structural advantage should allow us to outgrow the broader dental market."

Fred Lowery, Chief Executive Officer, Henry Schein

PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES

"We are uniquely positioned to capitalize on the continued growth from these fast-growing categories, especially in the areas of urology, oncology, and neurology."

Jason Hollar, CEO, Cardinal Health

PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES

"Most of last year it was relatively quiet. There were a few transactions in certain categories, but not as many as we expected. That's changed over the last couple of quarters. We're starting to see more assets come to market."

Brian Scott, CFO and COO, AMN Healthcare

BENCHMARK® INTERNATIONAL

Growth is total revenue as reported, including acquisitions, computed from each release's dollar figures; Steris and McKesson figures are for fiscal first quarters and Cardinal Health for its fiscal fourth quarter, all ended June 30, 2026. Quotations are from earnings releases, prepared remarks, and call transcripts for the quarter, lightly edited for fillers.
