Healthcare M&A: State of Play

Strategic buyers are setting the pace in 2026 while private equity completes fewer healthcare services transactions.

M&A market dynamics

- Private equity completed an estimated 337 healthcare services transactions in the first half, a pace of 674 for the year and the slowest since 2017 (PitchBook via Fierce Healthcare).
- Strategic buyers carried more of the activity. Medtech deal value reached $36.5 billion in the first half (PwC via MedTech Dive) and health systems announced 18 transactions in the second quarter (Kaufman Hall).
- Biopharma deal value reached $130 billion in six months, almost matching the total for all of 2025 (IQVIA).

Reimbursement and policy

- Medicare has proposed 2027 physician conversion factors of $33.17 and $32.84, reductions of 1.19% and 1.68%, with the final rule pending (CMS).
- Hospital outpatient, surgery center and home health rates are each proposed to rise 2.4% (CMS outpatient rule; CMS home health), and Medicare Advantage rates rise 2.48% (CMS rate notice).
- Medicaid work requirements and six-month eligibility reviews for expansion adults begin in 2027 (Medicaid.gov).

Financing and macro backdrop

- The Federal Reserve raised its target range to 3.75% to 4.00% on September 16 (Federal Reserve) and the 10-year Treasury yielded 5.24% on October 1 (US Treasury).
- Direct lenders widened buyout loan spreads to an average of 509 basis points in the second quarter from 474 in the first (PitchBook).
- Completed middle-market transactions in all industries averaged 7.0x EBITDA, with senior debt priced at 7.8% (GF Data via ACG).

Demand fundamentals

- National health spending grew 6.8% in the year to July 2026 and represented 18.4% of GDP (Altarum).
- CMS projects nearly $9.0 trillion of spending in 2034, or 20.6% of GDP, on average annual growth of 5.4% (CMS).
- Healthcare employers added 17,000 jobs in September against a twelve-month average of 33,000 (Bureau of Labor Statistics).

Trade and deal regulation

- A 100% default tariff applies to covered patented pharmaceuticals, with country and company exceptions and generics excluded (White House proclamation). The medical device investigation remained open in September with no tariff imposed (iData Research).
- California now requires transaction notices from private equity groups and management services organizations (Nixon Peabody), and Maine's 180-day notice and approval regime begins January 1, 2027 (BakerHostetler).

WHAT IT MEANS FOR OWNERS

Buyers are paying most readily for revenue that recurs under contract or clinical necessity and that is paid by a balanced mix of payers.

The median private equity entry multiple for healthcare services was 13.6x EBITDA in 2025, a figure weighted toward larger platforms (PitchBook via Becker's ASC Review), and 87% of sales above $5 million in all industries drew three or more offers (IBBA and M&A Source).

Figures are the latest published as of October 7, 2026, and each is linked to its source. Deal counts and values are as reported by the named publisher and are revised as transactions are confirmed.

Historical Market Context

Health spending has compounded through every cycle since 2016, and hospital transaction counts have recovered from the 2025 low.

Spending on care has grown every year for a decade, while the number of transactions has moved with financing costs and policy.

$5.3T

National health expenditures reached $5.3 trillion in 2024, or 18.0% of GDP, against $3.3 trillion in 2016 (CMS).

5.4%

CMS projects average annual spending growth of 5.4% from 2025 to 2034, against 4.1% for the economy, which would take spending to $9.0 trillion (Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget).

46

Hospitals and health systems announced 46 transactions in 2025, the fewest in the series, against 117 in 2017 (Kaufman Hall).

40

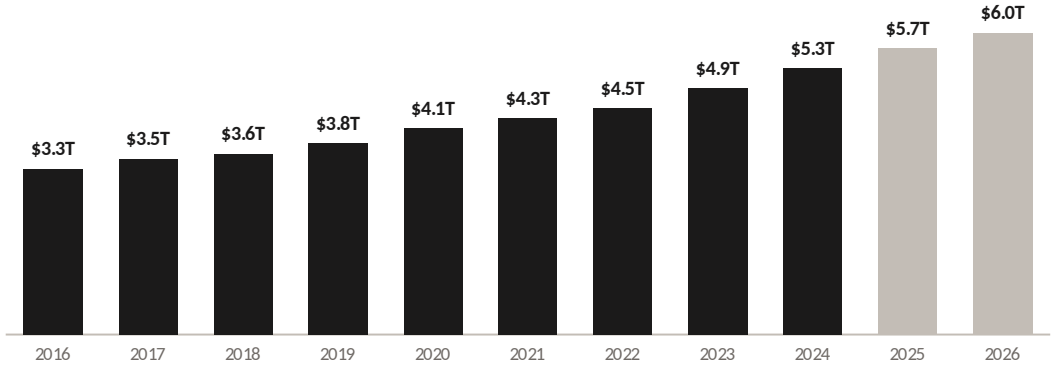

The first half of 2026 has already produced 40 announced hospital transactions, 22 in the first quarter and 18 in the second (Kaufman Hall, first quarter; second quarter).

1,217

Private equity completed 1,217 healthcare services transactions in 2021 and an estimated 747 in 2025 (PitchBook).

National health expenditure figures for 2016 to 2023 are drawn from CMS releases of different years, and CMS revises earlier years with each release. Transaction counts are announced transactions as tallied by Kaufman Hall.

Strong Fundamentals Support Continued Activity

Employment, capital investment and drug approvals have all grown since 2021, which supports demand in each of the four focus areas.

HEALTH CARE EMPLOYMENT KEEPS RISING

All employees, health care, millions, monthly, seasonally adjusted. Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics via FRED

- Healthcare employed 18.55 million people in September 2026, 16.1% more than in September 2021 and 2.0% more than a year earlier.
- Health care and social assistance had 1,359,000 open positions in August (Bureau of Labor Statistics JOLTS), which keeps clinician retention central to how buyers assess a provider.

CAPITAL KEEPS FLOWING INTO FACILITIES

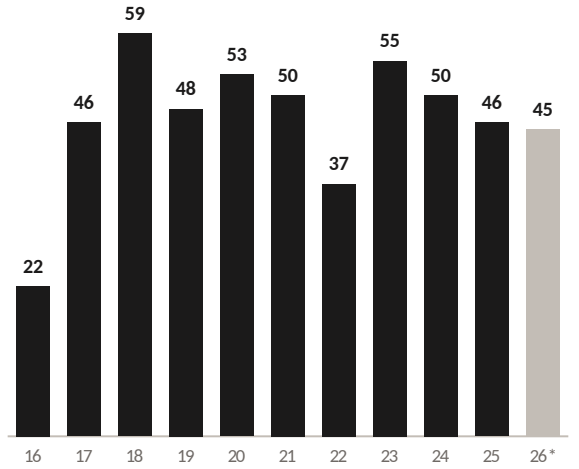

Total construction spending on health care, $ billions at an annual rate, monthly. Source: US Census Bureau via FRED

- Healthcare construction ran at an annual rate of $75.8 billion in August 2026, 49% above September 2021.
- Medical care prices rose 13.0% over the same period on the consumer price index (FRED), so part of the increase reflects higher costs.

DRUG APPROVALS HAVE RECOVERED

Novel drugs approved by the FDA Center for Drug Evaluation and Research, by year. Source: FDA; RAPS

- The FDA approved 46 novel drugs in 2025 and 45 in 2026 through September 28, after a low of 37 in 2022.
- Outsourced research has recovered alongside approvals, with IQVIA booking $1.22 of new work for each dollar of revenue in the second quarter (IQVIA).

* 2026 covers approvals through September 28. Employment and construction series run from September 2021 to the latest month published as of October 7, 2026. Approval counts for 2016 to 2021 and 2024 are as reported by RAPS and US Pharmacist from FDA data.

BUSINESSES WE COVER

Urgent care, Optometry & eye care, Pediatric & physical therapy, Multi-specialty medical groups, Emergency medical services, Renal care

KEY TRENDS

- The 100 largest urgent care operators hold 6,056 of the country's 14,655 centers, and 55.9% of those locations are affiliated with a hospital (Journal of Urgent Care Medicine).
- HCA Healthcare acquired 70 urgent care centers in three 2026 transactions (Becker's ASC Review; Healthcare Dive).
- Care in the home drew the largest provider transactions of the year, including Kinderhook's agreement to take Enhabit private at about $1.1 billion (HLTH).
- Independent practice continues to shrink, and 42.2% of physicians work in physician-owned practices against 60.1% in 2012 (AMA survey via Medical Economics).

LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

Research spending has turned up and laboratories are selling to the national networks.

BUSINESSES WE COVER

Clinical & pathology labs, Biologics & reagents, Clinical research sites, Human-factors & device design

KEY TRENDS

- Quest grew revenue 10.2% in the second quarter on 13.1% more requisitions (Quest Diagnostics), and Labcorp spent $528.6 million on acquisitions in the first half (Labcorp Form 10-Q).
- Medicare laboratory fee cuts of up to 15% a year could resume in 2027 unless Congress passes the RESULTS Act (Association for Diagnostics & Laboratory Medicine).
- Outsourced research has recovered, with IQVIA's net bookings up 19% (IQVIA) and Medpace growing revenue 17.2% (Medpace).
- Sponsor-backed networks continue to buy clinical research sites, including Headlands Research in California and Summit Clinical Research in Dallas (Headlands Research; Summit Clinical Research).

Each focus area has its own buyers and drivers. This page covers products, distribution, pharmacy and staffing.

MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

Procedure demand is firm and consumables are outgrowing capital equipment.

BUSINESSES WE COVER

Surgical instrument reprocessing, Emergency medical supplies, Respiratory & anesthesia products, Dental devices, Orthopedic products

KEY TRENDS

- Stryker grew 9.0% organically in the second quarter (Stryker), and Steris grew healthcare consumables 9% while capital equipment grew 1% (Steris).
- Among health system executives, 41% plan to cut capital spending in 2026 (HFMA), which favors suppliers of recurring products.
- Several of the largest distribution businesses changed ownership, including Owens & Minor's products segment and a 13% interest in McKesson's medical-surgical unit (Owens & Minor; McKesson).
- Tariffs have moved earnings in both directions since the Supreme Court struck down the emergency-powers tariffs in February (Barnes Dennig).

What We're Reading

Four pieces from the third quarter, one for each focus area, with the passage we marked and what it means for an owner.

FIERCE HEALTHCARE | PROVIDER SERVICES — August 19, 2026

Projected healthcare services deal count to be lowest since 2017, PitchBook finds

> "It's hard to imagine that things stay at such a depressed level. We expect mean reversion going forward."
> Brian Wright, lead research analyst of healthcare at PitchBook

Key takeaway. Private equity is on pace for 674 healthcare services transactions in 2026 after an estimated 337 in the first half. The analyst behind the count expects activity to return toward its longer-run level.

IQVIA | LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS — July 8, 2026

Biopharma M&A: Mid-year 2026 update

> "After the first six months of 2026, aggregate M&A deal value has already reached $130Bn, almost matching the full-year total for 2025, with a year-to-date deal count of 42, or 84% of the 2025 total."
> IQVIA Global Thought Leadership

Key takeaway. The count covers acquisitions of $250 million or more, so it describes the largest buyers. Their spending supports demand for the research, laboratory and manufacturing services that founder-owned companies supply.

MEDTECH DIVE | MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION — July 6, 2026

Top 10 medtech deals in the first half of 2026

> "Medtech dealmakers remained busy over the first half of 2026, building on the decade-high M&A activity achieved last year with a string of deals worth upward of $1 billion."
> MedTech Dive

Key takeaway. PwC counted $36.5 billion of medtech acquisitions in the first half. The largest were Boston Scientific's $14.5 billion purchase of Penumbra and Danaher's $9.9 billion purchase of Masimo.

DRUG CHANNELS | PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES — August 11, 2026

The K-Shaped Pharmacy Shakeout: Consolidation in Cities, Lost Access in Rural America

> "The United States has almost 8,000 fewer retail pharmacies than it did in 2018, and more than 2,000 closed in 2025 alone."
>
> Bryce Platt, PharmD, Drug Channels

Key takeaway. Prescription dispensing revenues reached a record $751 billion in 2025, up 10%, while the number of pharmacies fell. Scale, specialty mix and payer contracts decide which pharmacies remain attractive to a buyer.

Healthcare Services Deal Volume Has Reset

Private equity completed 1,217 healthcare services transactions in 2021 and is on pace for 674 in 2026, the fewest since 2017.

2017 to 2019

Steady platform building

Private equity completed between 490 and 684 healthcare services transactions a year, and hospitals announced 117 transactions in 2017 and 92 in 2019.

2020 to 2021

The peak

Volume rose to 829 in 2020 and 1,217 in 2021, the highest in the series.

2022 to 2024

Three years of decline

Annual volume fell from 998 to 682. The Medicare conversion factor fell from $34.61 in 2022 to $32.35 in 2025 (AMA).

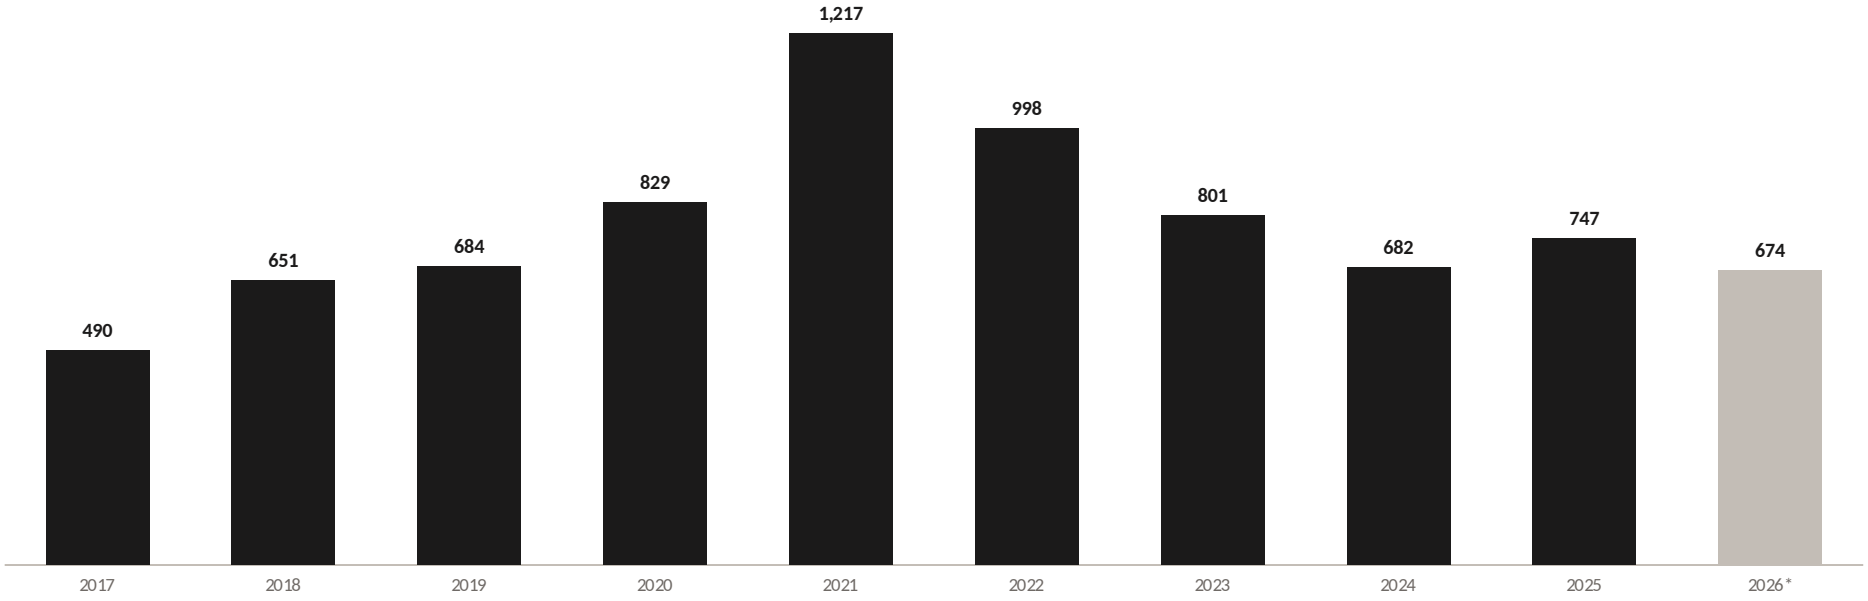

2025 to 2026

Strategic buyers lead

Volume recovered to an estimated 747 in 2025. The first half of 2026 produced an estimated 337, while medtech deal value reached $36.5 billion and biopharma deal value reached $130 billion.

PROVIDER SERVICES

"We continue to see opportunities that include everything from larger portfolios, landlords looking to replace current tenants, non-profits looking to divest of their post-acute assets and a steady flow of traditional one-sie two-sies."

Barry Port, Chief Executive Officer, The Ensign Group

PROVIDER SERVICES

"Recently, we have begun to see an increasing number of personal care opportunities, which we will be actively pursuing. Since the announcement of the 2027 proposed home health rule rate, there is more optimism around potential deals in skilled home health care."

Dirk Allison, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Addus HomeCare

LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

"Hospitals continue to contend with workforce, financial and other pressures. As a preferred strategic partner, we empower hospitals to improve quality, expand access to new test innovations, and maximize cost efficiencies and capital allocation."

Jim Davis, Chairman, CEO and President, Quest Diagnostics

LIFE SCIENCES & DIAGNOSTICS

"As you know, our capital deployment strategy continues to prioritize strategic M&A, complemented by return of capital to our shareholders. We continue to have an active pipeline of M&A opportunities in our highly fragmented industry."

Marc Casper, CEO, Thermo Fisher Scientific

MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

"When you talk about onshoring, it's not just a move to the U.S. There's localization going on globally as tariffs become more of a play in Europe and in the U.S. You'll see some duplication of manufacturing sites, whereas maybe in the past, you might have one site globally that is focusing on one pharmaceutical product."

Dan Carestio, President and CEO, STERIS

MEDICAL PRODUCTS & DISTRIBUTION

"We also have a leading position in the fast-growing DSO segment of the market, which is driven especially by the middle market segment. As these DSOs continue to consolidate the dental market, this structural advantage should allow us to outgrow the broader dental market."

Fred Lowery, Chief Executive Officer, Henry Schein

PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES

"We are uniquely positioned to capitalize on the continued growth from these fast-growing categories, especially in the areas of urology, oncology, and neurology"

Jason Hollar, CEO, Cardinal Health

PHARMACY & HEALTHCARE SERVICES

"I think the market, as we've talked about over the last year, there's been an expectation there'd be more consolidation that would occur. Quite honestly, most of last year it was relatively quiet. There were a few transactions in certain categories, not as many as we expected. That's changed over the last couple of quarters. We're starting to see more assets come to market."

Brian Scott, CFO & COO, AMN Healthcare

Growth is total revenue as reported, including acquisitions; company names link to the releases. Steris and McKesson figures are for fiscal first quarters and Cardinal Health for its fiscal fourth quarter, all ended June 30, 2026. Quotations are from the earnings releases.
