Insights

KEY INSIGHTS

01 Inspection work draws the deepest buyer pool
Pye-Barker completed 22 acquisitions in the first half of 2026, after 57 in 2025. Acquirers compete hardest for contracted inspection and service work.

02 Costlier debt puts a premium on proof
Debt on platform acquisitions fell to 2.9x EBITDA from 3.4x, and the Federal Reserve raised its target range on September 16. Documented earnings and contracted customers now command the premium.

03 Engineering buyers pay for people and backlog
Bernhard Capital agreed to buy Bowman at a 58% premium, and 88% of engineering firms report open positions. Licensed staff and a year of funded backlog set the price.

04 Prepared sellers still draw several offers
Completed middle-market deals averaged 7.0x EBITDA in the second quarter, and 87% of sales above $5 million drew three or more offers. Keep every client below a fifth of revenue.

Key Trends in Business Services

Six developments are shaping demand, pricing and deal activity across the five sectors as the fourth quarter begins.

Inspection-driven revenue draws the most active buyers — 22

Pye-Barker Fire & Safety completed 22 acquisitions in the first half of 2026 after 57 in 2025 (Pye-Barker). APi Group grew 10.1% organically in the second quarter and reported a backlog above $5 billion (APi Group).

Acquirers compete most actively for contracted inspection and service work.

Financing became more expensive in the third quarter — 4.99%

The Federal Reserve raised its target range to 3.75% to 4.00% on September 16 (Federal Reserve), and the 10-year Treasury yield averaged 4.99% in September (FRED). Debt on platform acquisitions fell to 2.9x EBITDA from 3.4x (GF Data via ACG).

Costlier debt puts a premium on documented earnings and contracted customers.

Engineering backlogs run a year deep and licensed staff are scarce — 88%

The median engineering firm holds 12 months of backlog, and 88% of firms report open positions (ACEC). Bernhard Capital agreed to buy Bowman for about $1.0 billion of enterprise value, a 58% premium (Bowman).

Buyers of engineering firms are paying for licensed staff and funded backlog.

Softer insurance pricing has slowed broker organic growth — –2%

Commercial premiums fell 2% on average in the second quarter, with property down 6.3% (Insurance Journal). Aon agreed to buy USI for $17 billion in cash (Insurance Journal, September 21).

Small commercial and casualty accounts are seeing the least pricing pressure.

Staffing revenue is growing for the first time in three years — +5%

Median staffing revenue grew 5% in August, the highest reading since late 2022 (Staffing Industry Analysts). Temporary help employment remains 21% below its March 2022 peak (BLS via FRED).

Skilled trades, engineering and healthcare placements are drawing acquirers.

Advertising is growing while AI changes what agencies sell — +9.6%

US advertising revenue is forecast to grow 9.6% in 2026 (MediaPost). Marketing budgets hold at 7.8% of company revenue, with 15.3% of those budgets directed to AI (Marketing Dive).

Retained clients, first-party data and measurable outcomes hold their value.

WHAT IT MEANS FOR OWNERS

Buyers pay most readily for revenue that repeats under contract. Completed middle-market transactions averaged 7.0x EBITDA in the second quarter (GF Data via ACG), the median multiple on sales of $5 million to $50 million reached 5.8x (IBBA and M&A Source), and 87% of sales above $5 million drew three or more offers (IBBA and M&A Source release).

BENCHMARK® INTERNATIONAL

Figures are the latest published as of October 7, 2026, and each is linked to its source. The 10-year Treasury figure is the monthly average for September 2026. EBITDA is earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization.

Perspectives on Five Sectors

Each sector has its own buyers and drivers, and the same five tests decide how a buyer values a business in any of them.

COMMERCIAL & FACILITY SERVICES

Contracted, inspection-driven revenue is drawing the most active consolidators.

MARKET SIZE AND GROWTH

Recurring monthly revenue at the 100 largest security dealers rose 7% to $740 million in 2025 (SDM), and SGS grew 5.6% organically in the first half (SGS).

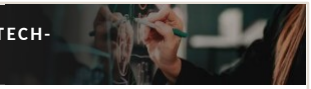

ACTIVE BUYERS

Pye-Barker, APi Group, AI Fire and Cintas in fire and safety; Allied Universal in guarding; DEX Imaging and UBEO in office technology; SGS and TIC Solutions in testing.

WHAT BUYERS REWARD

MARKET SIZE AND GROWTH

US internet advertising revenue reached $294.6 billion in 2025, up 13.9% (IAB and PwC), and promotional products sales reached a record $27.7 billion (ASI).

ACTIVE BUYERS

Sponsor-backed agency platforms such as OneMagnify, Power Digital and Wpromote; Publicis and Havas; Accenture and Cognizant; HALO and Proforma in promotional products.

WHAT BUYERS REWARD

Retained client relationships, depth in one vertical, proprietary data and a team beyond the founder.

ENGINEERING, ARCHITECTURE & CONSULTING

Backlogs run a year deep, and private capital is paying for licensed talent.

MARKET SIZE AND GROWTH

The 500 largest design firms reported $158.7 billion of revenue, up 7.4% (ENR), and 447 transactions were announced among design and construction firms in 2025 (PSMJ).

ACTIVE BUYERS

Specialty placements, gross margin held through the downturn and direct client relationships.

ACROSS ALL FIVE SECTORS

Five tests buyers apply

1. Revenue that repeats under contract
   Service agreements, retainers and renewals.
2. Licensed, certified or tenured people
   Credentials held by the company.
3. Management beyond the owner
   Leaders who hold the client relationships.
4. No client above a fifth of revenue
   One dominant account lowers the price.
5. Margins that held through the downturn
   Proof that pricing and staffing can adjust.

Active buyers are drawn from transactions announced between October 2025 and October 2026. Company names are the property of their owners and are shown for identification.

What We're Reading

Six primary sources and trade reports from the third quarter, with the reason each one matters to an owner.

INDUSTRY READING

ACEC RESEARCH INSTITUTE — August 27, 2026

Engineering firms hold a year of work and expect a slower economy

The third-quarter survey of engineering firms recorded a median backlog of 12 months, with the strongest sentiment in data centers and in water and wastewater. The same firms put the odds of a recession within six months at 41%, and 88% reported open positions.

> Our read. Backlog and a bench of licensed engineers are the first two facts a buyer will test.

READ HERE

STAFFING INDUSTRY ANALYSTS — September 29, 2026

Staffing revenue grows 5% at the median, the best reading since 2022

The August Pulse Survey of 128 staffing firms recorded median revenue growth of 5% from a year earlier. Engineering staffing led at 10% and industrial staffing followed at 8%, after three years in which industry revenue declined.

> Our read. The recovery is strongest in the skilled categories where this year's acquisitions are concentrated.

READ HERE

INSURANCE JOURNAL — August 20, 2026

Commercial premiums fall 2% as property pricing softens

The Council of Insurance Agents & Brokers recorded an average premium decline of 2% in the second quarter. Large accounts fell 3.7% and small accounts 0.5%. Commercial property fell 6.3% while umbrella and commercial auto continued to rise.

> Our read. Account size and line of business now explain most of the difference in agency growth.

READ HERE

ECONOMY AND DEAL MARKET

REUTERS — October 1, 2026

Global deal value falls 41% in the third quarter

Announced global M&A fell to $993 billion in the third quarter, the first quarter under $1 trillion since mid-2025, after a record first half. The report attributes the decline to rising borrowing costs.

> Our read. The slowdown is concentrated in the largest transactions. Add-on purchases by existing platforms made up about three-quarters of second-quarter buyouts (PitchBook).

READ HERE

FEDERAL RESERVE — September 16, 2026

The Federal Open Market Committee raises its target range

The committee raised the target range for the federal funds rate by 25 basis points to 3.75% to 4.00% and stated that inflation remains elevated. Senior debt on middle-market acquisitions was already priced at 7.8% in the second quarter.

> Our read. Lenders are advancing less debt against each dollar of earnings, at 2.9x EBITDA on platform deals (GF Data via ACG).

READ HERE

IBBA AND M&A SOURCE — Market Pulse, second quarter 2026

Smaller transactions reach their highest multiple since early 2022

The quarterly survey of business brokers and M&A advisors put the median multiple on sales of $5 million to $50 million at 5.8x EBITDA, up from 5.5x. Sellers received 83% to 92% of the price in cash at closing.

> Our read. Competition for well-prepared businesses is intact, with three or more offers on 87% of sales above $5 million (survey release).

Feature: Fire and Life Safety

Inspection and service revenue explains why fire protection and security companies have the most active acquirers in business services.

INDUSTRY FEATURE

Why fire and life safety has the most active acquirers

Pye-Barker alone bought 79 fire and security companies in the 18 months to June 2026, and APi Group, Sciens Building Solutions and AI Fire are buying alongside it. Three features of the work explain the interest.

1 The work is contracted or mandated
Inspection, testing and monitoring repeat on a schedule, so the revenue continues when new construction slows.

2 Each acquired branch adds density
A buyer that already runs routes in a region can serve an acquired book of accounts with the technicians it has.

3 Inspection leads the customer relationship
APi bought CertaSite, with about $90 million of revenue, because the business leads with inspections and earns repair and service work from them.

Median by sector; growth includes acquisitions

Financial and insurance growth reflects large acquisitions by the listed brokers, and engineering growth is supported by backlog.

EBITDA margin, trailing twelve months

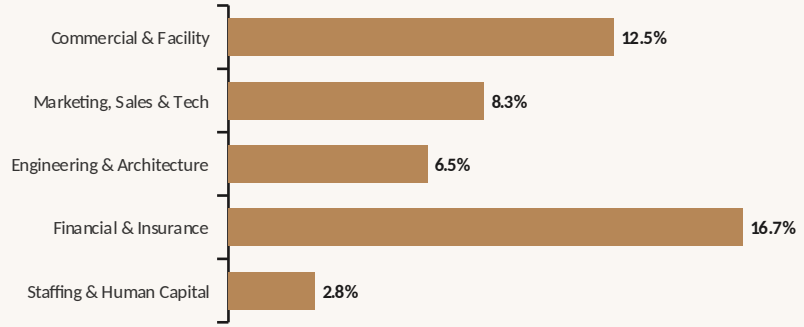

Median by sector, on reported EBITDA

Insurance brokerage earns the widest margin, and staffing earns the narrowest because most of its revenue passes through to payroll.

Free cash flow margin, trailing twelve months

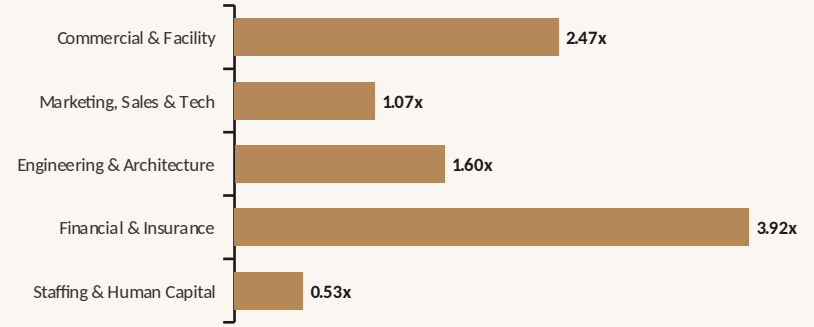

Median by sector

Commercial and facility services converts more revenue to cash than engineering or marketing services.

Enterprise value to trailing revenue

Median by sector

Revenue multiples follow margin, which is why an owner should compare a business with its own sector.

Scott Salmirs, President and Chief Executive Officer, ABM Industries

Said aviation and manufacturing and distribution led organic growth, and that deferred projects in the technical solutions business are expected to ramp in the fourth quarter.

Jennifer Scanlon, President and CEO, UL Solutions

Described record revenue, strong cash flow and wider margins, and said the company is well positioned for the second half of 2026.

Scott Patterson, Chief Executive Officer, FirstService

Said profitability met expectations while macroeconomic headwinds held back organic growth.

READ-THROUGH

Inspection and service revenue is carrying growth while customers defer discretionary projects.

Gord Johnston, President and CEO, Stantec

Said a record backlog of $9.2 billion supports stronger activity in the second half and keeps the company on track for its 2026 targets.

Mike Bieber, President and Chief Executive Officer, Willdan Group

Linked growth to strong demand for energy work as customers spend to serve rising electricity load and to improve grid reliability.

Gary Bowman, founder and CEO, Bowman Consulting

Roger Argus, Chief Executive Officer, Tetra Tech

Attributed a strong quarter mainly to US federal and international markets, each of which grew at a double-digit rate.

READ-THROUGH

Power, water and infrastructure work is filling backlogs, and buyers are paying for the licensed staff who deliver it.

M. Keith Waddell, president and chief executive officer, Robert Half

Said hiring demand keeps improving and that market conditions are becoming more supportive.

READ-THROUGH

Staffing demand is returning, and marketing clients are concentrating spend where results can be measured.
